

Enemies of the Alliance

Venerea

We gather in parks and on squares
Before an unwilling audience
With banners high in the air
We're chastising the government
We are the misfits
Devoting our lives to a smear campaign
Red tags and emblems
Grace their walls of shame

All deserters united
The discontent and the slighted
In futile acts of defiance
We're enemies of the alliance

Middle class heroes and kids
We educate and demonstrate
Against the capitalists
Purveyors of the hellfare state
We are the watchmen
The conscience of society
Waiting and Watching
Till the revolution's here
