

Hold On

Venke Knutson

Time heals it all is what they say
Leave it at that and you'll be okay
Expressing yourselves with no word
I'm left out to long for what I've heard
Courageous to talk in the silence
Leaving the doubt and the violence
As I'm waiting for the time to heal my pain
I'll hold on just one minute
I'll hold on a little more
I'll hold on and make sure that you know
That it's you that I'm holding on for
I'll hold on just one minute
I'll hold on a little more
I'll hold on and make sure that you know

That it', you that I'm holding on for
Look at me now what a mess
Never thought I would end up like this
Expressing myself with no sound
Still waiting to see if you'll come around
I'm tired of all of this crying
Days when I'm quietly trying
To make up for all the days that caused your pain
But I'll
I'll hold on just one minute
I'll hold on a little more
I'll hold on and make sure that you know
That it's you that I'm holding on for
I'll hold on just one minute
I'll hold on a little more
I'll hold on and make sure that you know
That it's you that I'm holding on for
