Ugh

Off the wake up, plotting on a big break
I grew a lot of fake love, lot of anger misplaced
It's true, you tryna make somethin'?
Gotta make the shit shake, yeah
Get ya weight up, huh, keep your wit safe
Gotta grip the paper, I spent and let it slip away
Ashamed that all the pay cut just go to getting shit faced
I'm ballin' on a hater, I'm tryna meet you midway
But walking to the same luck, just call it what it is, man
You fought, you getting praise, huh?
You thought this shit was kid play
I'm cautious what I pray for, was taught I'm supposed to give g race
[?] neighbor, I'll call you when we switch place
My fault, that's how they raised us
Flawed, we tryna trick fate, yeah
