What's more important, first side supporting when you can't afford it
Or playing dormant 'til you break the orbit?
Champagne enjoyment from campaigns deploying
I'm most stamped in, Amazon Prime employment
It's a bad time to annoy me
The path lined from your face to my right palm is gorgeous
If I swing mine
I see y'all niggas in court 'cause you know niggas recording
'Cause that let niggas important, they always asking 'bout locations
Our shop is assorted, I got these bitches imported
My Yahoo think I'm in Japan
They left right when I was afraid
They left right when I had a plan
They left right, fuck it, but it cool, I grew up fucking with the pen
That got furious
Feel like Tyrese Gibson, like, y'all cop pleas, I cop pieces, our experience different

Walked in mask on wondering if you notice me
Ten toes even with the coldest feet
That boy Kobe, he ain't frozen, see
That boy Kobe, he ain't—
Walked in mask on wondering if you notice me
Ten toes even with the coldest feet
That boy Kobe, he ain't frozen, see
Just for fifty

She won't leave with Mr. Popular
What kind of man would think of stopping her?
Who planned that dress that make 'em stop and stir?
Too interested, but before we get the questions, I know (You look a single)
I know (You're gonna race me)
I know (They don't even see)
I know (What, is it just me? No, no, no, no)

Walked in mask on wondering if you notice me
Ten toes even with the coldest feet
That boy Kobe, he ain't frozen, see
That boy Kobe, he ain't—
Walked in mask on wondering if you notice me
Ten toes even with the coldest feet
That boy Kobe, he ain't frozen, see
Just for fifty
