

Myself

Venna

Da-dum-da-dim, dum-da-dum-dum
Dum-dum-dum, doo-doo
My heart won't save me for what I do

It's not something I could've left outside of this
See, my heart does more to me
My mind knows I shouldn't get into this
Please believe I held back the kissing
But you pull me in like it's okay
You show me love just for the day
Losing myself is only wise if I will grow
Finding it out is always harder if you know
I come at the end in the middle
I can't fall, I can't till I get out
Losing myself is only wise when I grow

Choosing myself before I lose myself
Choosing myself before I lose myself (Yeah)
Choosing myself before I lose myself
Before I lose myself

Losing myself, sometimes a loss without fighting (Without fighting)

Still on my way, tryna hide what I'm hiding
Love isn't to blame but if I try, I will find it
Lost in his ways, oh, my God, I can't explain it, no
Oh, my God, I can't explain it
Oh, my God, I can't explain it
Love isn't to blame but if I try, I will find it
Lost in his ways, oh, my God, I can't explain it, no

Oh, my God, I can't explain it
Oh, my God, I can't explain it
