

Sun, Moon & Herbs

Venna

Storm and rain
I don't want no storm and rain, no
Call me when the seasons change
'Cause I'm crying out
I'm crying out
Storm and rain
I don't want no storm and rain, no (Oh)
Call me when the seasons change
'Cause I'm crying out
I'm crying out

But your planet is in retrograde
And some things will never be the same
But I ain't looking for no one to blame
Mother Nature, she don't play (Yeah)
And time don't wait for no man
So love me while you can
Can you stand? (Can you?)
(Our planet) Retrograde
Be the same
One to blame
Mother Nature, she don't play

Storm and rain
I don't want no storm and rain, no
Call me when the seasons change
'Cause I'm crying out
I'm crying out

Call me when the seasons change
'Cause I'm crying out
I'm crying out (Ooh)

Storm and rain (Ooh)
I don't want no storm and rain, no
Call me when the seasons change
'Cause I'm crying out
I'm crying out
