

Twisting

Venna

Lipstick on my collar
Blooming like a flower
No sign
This journey ain't for everyone
My trust ain't just for you
Color blue, color blues in your sky
Still loving me, I don't know why

The tightrope you're walking on ain't stable
I'm trying and willing, but not able
Every story I tell you is a fable

You're a print in my sheets
I'm a prince in your life
Playing the game for a ring, not a wire

Twisting metals
Twisting papers
Get away tonight
Can't breathe while we fly

Twisting metals
Twisting papers
Get away tonight
Can't breathe while we fly

Twisting, yeah

Twisting metals
Twisting
