Venna

Why you ain't learn no better?
Acting like you really got a cold
It's hard to see your blessings getting lesser
And you over there running wild
It's only you when the world gets silent
All alone on the road you've chosen

When you see me, you don't even stop
Just keep walking in the same direction
Keep on getting by, keep on getting by
If you feeling me, you don't even talk
Keep walking in the same direction
Keep on getting by, keep on getting by
Ooh, just keep walking in the same direction
Just keep walking in the same direction

Like you got a need, yeah
This deep in like a preacher, yeah
No, you don't make living easy
And I never feel so bad
Wait, that wasn't me, and I would say what I mean
I never loved so deep
Now I'm down without
You the life of me
The better side of me, yeah, yeah

I lost level, [?] till I'm back to my old ways
Down my level, but I'm still ashamed, so on my face
Road's spinning, but the other way, I swear it's feeling like that Feelings wicked like that
The more I see you, the more I feel like that
Been drinking like that
For I swear, that's a limit and you test it somewhere for us to see
Like that, ooh, like that
Who crossed me or want to decide?
Flash a light up in the flight
Who? Another counterattack from you
Ooh, I fall, yeah, like that, ooh, like that

Ooh, just keep walking in the same direction
Keep on getting by
Just keep walking in the same direction
Keep on walking in the same direction (Keep on)
Keep on walking, keep on walking, yeah
Keep on, keep on walking in the same direction (Keep on getting by)
