

Burn Liar Burn

Venom Inc.

Create your world to serve your greed
Let them live in fear
Plant the seeds to harvest lies
The end is ever near
The truth is all but buried
And reason dead and gone
They look towards a saviour
And you shall be the one

God's holy plan
Is man killing man

Burn liar burn
Will we ever learn

Demon, angel, heretic
A slave to your belief
Corruption, lies and politics
Where is the relief
Carried from the cradle
Delivered to the grave
An order of selection
For those who shall be saved

Release the disease
We have gods to appease

Burn liar burn
You'll never learn

Burn liar burn
Burn liar burn
