

The Dance

Venom Inc.

Charon passes you unto the city of woe
Delivers to the shores of fire and ice
Through eternal darkness where your eyes will see
Eternal pain for eternity

A list
A list of carnal sins
Where everything begins
The tortured souls and screams
The endless nightmare dreams

The brink of sad abyss
Where buried in the mist
The thunder seeks to howl
The dance inside
You're crucified
The dance inside you now

Down
Down deeper on your path
Forever it will last
You're in and out of trance
So, "Welcome to the dance"

Your violence, lust and greed
Will not help you succeed
The fires burn like the sun
This dance inside
Forget they lied
This dance has just begun

Immersed into the Phlegethon
Where their guilt repaid is done
The boiling blood and fire
This war was their desire

The wood of suicides
Where violence collides
Writhe in eternal flame
Forever is the same

The souls of gnarled trees
Are everywhere he sees
They're mauled by wanton lust
On the burning sand and dust

Across the burning plain
The wreckage and the pain
Their souls cannot be free
They're twisted, tied and crucified
And they dance eternally
