Venom Inc.

War in the heavens, war in the world
War on the streets of your city
Kill for no reason, kill without shame
Genocide plays without pity

Fighting for nothing with blood on our hands
Our children are asking us why
We fight for survival and kill for our cause
Constantly waiting to die

No surrender
No retreat
No salvation
No defeat
War

Die for your country, die for your kind
Die for the place where you live
Human malfunction makes killing a game
There's no compassion to give

Bend them and break them and beat them to death
Take all they have as your gain
Organized, mobilized, cold war machine
One step away from insane

No surrender
No retreat
No salvation
No defeat
