

Castigated In Steel And Concrete

Venom Prison

Confusion
Fear
Anger
Frustration
Deprived of human contact
Encased in concrete degradation

Destructive
Inhumane
Barbaric
Morbid reality locked away from public eyes

Waiting, staring at the walls
Conforming to rejection
Your brain disintegrates
This place is not designed for you to leave
You don't get here to get better

Isolation - driven to insanity
In solitary confinement
Castigated - enclosed in steel and concrete
This prison cell is your tomb

Disgraceful and meaningless
With intention of a long and fateful death

Waiting, staring at the walls

Confusion
Fear
Anger and frustration
Like a mist it rises and clouds your sanity
Cries and whispers, so close yet far away
Visions of things that were and never will be

Isolation - driven to insanity
In solitary confinement
Castigated - enclosed in steel and concrete
This prison cell is your tomb

Cries and whispers, so close yet far away
Visions of things that were and never will be
Where cries for help are falling onto deaf ears
Like a mist it rises and clouds your sanity
Sanity

Disorienting
Disassociation with reality
Obedience
Repressing suicidal tendencies

Isolation - driven to insanity
In solitary confinement
Castigated - enclosed in steel and concrete
This prison cell is your tomb
