

Sadistic Rituals

Venom Prison

Angels targeted and shot from the sky
Served as source of narcissistic supply
Lured in by promises and pathological lies

Idolise, devalue, discard
I carve your name into my chest
Feed love and empathy upon my breast

Enlightened by false hope and pathological lies
Smothered with romance and sweet lullabies
With their wings cut angels can't fly
Drained of sweet nectar and left to die
Soaked in ethanol, preserved like trophies

Idolise, devalue, discard
I carve your name into my chest
Feed love and empathy upon my breast

Lured in by promises of a better tomorrow
Drugged with emotions, like a cocaine blow
You sucked the life out of magnificence

I carve your name into my chest
Feed love and empathy upon my breast
Enlightened by false hope and pathological lies

Feed love and empathy
