

Slayer Of Holofernes

Venom Prison

The destroyer of worlds waiting upon Bethulia
Like night upon the day

Eradicate the land and its people
Decimate, obliterate, annihilate
The black widow entices the enemies
With her darkness

Conspiracy of vengeance for her own independence
Decapitate, exterminate, liberate
Take his head, free the land
Take his head, free the land
The heroine is gracefully recoiling
From her gruesome deed

Holding his head with one hand
Cutting the neck with the other

Take his head, free the land
Take his head, free the land
Take his head, free the land
Take his head, free the land

Rivulets of blood
Across the sheets
The monster struggles in vain
The woman doesn't flinch

Take his head, free the land
Take his head, free the land
Take his head, free the land

The blood violently spurting from the neck
The head separated from his body
In triumph, the souvenir is brought home

Rivulets of blood
Across the sheets
The monster struggles in vain
The woman doesn't flinch

No law is sacred, no man is safe, no crime forgotten
No law is sacred, no man is safe
Kill or be killed
Kill or be killed
Kill or be killed
Kill or be killed
Kill or be killed
Kill or be killed
Kill or be killed
