

Usurper Of The Throne

Venom Prison

I'm burning flesh and crushing bones
Spitting fire on the marching clones
Bred on illusions, force fed with lies
Walking on corpses with wide open eyes

Don't fear justice, fear me

Heroes are dead - creatures left to endear
The strongest emotion of mankind is fear
Those who will not follow are doomed to lead
Greed and power always made this world bleed

Don't fear justice, fear me

Claws and teeth sharpened on centuries of corpses
It takes a backdraught to burn this fortress
Behind ashes ruins of towers entombed
Those who will not follow are doomed

Don't fear justice, fear me
Fear - dead - justice

Don't fear justice
When there's nothing there to lose
There is no equity of power
It's only more and less
