

Fallen Angels

Venom

At the dawn when time began
Blink of the raven's eye
Prophecies of the great beast
That God could not deny
Frantic in creations for
A creature called mankind
When the gift of a free will
Put Satan in their mind
Cast from heaven
Damned to hell
In the beginning
Angels fell
With a choice to reign in hell
Or serve in heaven's law
Angels did not hesitate
To take their chance below
Cherubim and seraphim
United in their quest
Lucifer would lead the way
The one he loved the best
Lies of heaven
Lies of hell
Through the ages
Mankind fell
Dragons rise then priests die
Heaven cries
Hell unites and man fights, hypnotized
Broken laws, predators
Satan's hordes
In hell's jaws, heaven falls then no more
Look at the children of fallen angels
Free in a world of the fallen angels
No more lies, the fallen rise
