

Another morning just a little less bright
Drifting away from the light
Don't know what's happening
Just a feeling that nothing's alright

Colours bleed to grey
My day turns to night
I am not okay
Drifting out of sight

I might forget
What once was clear
Filled with regret
I face my fear

Isolation
Feel it coming I can't stop it
I don't wanna go blind
I don't wanna go blind
Self destruction
Feeling helpless is this worth it
I don't wanna lose sight
I don't wanna go blind

Another morning but without the light
Falling right into the night
I can feel the blackening
A big hope of mine has died

But I'll push right back
I'm going to see you again
This is not the end

Isolation
Feel it coming I can't stop it
I don't wanna go blind
I don't wanna go blind
Self destruction
Feeling helpless is this worth it
I don't wanna lose sight
I don't wanna go blind

You're taking the glow from my eyes
But you won't take my heart
Despair comes cloaked in disguise
You will not tear me apart

Isolation
Feel it coming I can't stop it
I don't wanna go blind
I don't wanna go blind
Self destruction
Feeling helpless is this worth it
I don't wanna lose sight
I don't wanna go blind
