

Godspeed, Goodbye

VENUES

It feels like a sickness
I'm hardly falling asleep while the ground is shaking Guess I'll stay awake then

With nothing but streetlights
There all guiding me towards misery
I'm drowning
And I heed my calling

I heed my calling
How many songs are left for me to write?
I heed my calling
Godspeed, goodbye
There's no end in sight

I met myself some time ago
Now all that I know
Euphoria long gone
What have I become?
Trapped inside a state of void
Chained up to the night
Euphoria long gone
I used to be the sun
And so were you

And so were you

And now I'm pathetic
'Cause I got no reason to feel like I'm losing my freedom
What am I seeking?

With a heavy heart to defend
It's guiding me along my way
When will this journey end?
Every country is the same grey

I heed my calling
How many songs are left for me to write?
I heed my calling
Godspeed, goodbye
There's no end in sight

I met myself some time ago
Now all that I know
Euphoria long gone
What have I become?
Trapped inside a state of void
Chained up to the night
Euphoria long gone
I used to be the sun
And so were you

I'm trapped in this system
Feels like what I'm building
Will become my prison

I'm trapped in this system

Feels like what I'm building
Will become my prison

I'm trapped in this system
Feels like what I'm building
Will become my own prison

I'm trapped in this system
Feels like what I'm building
Will become my own prison

I met myself some time ago
Now all that I know
Euphoria long gone
What have I become?
Trapped inside a state of void
Chained up to the night
Euphoria long gone
I used to be the sun
And so were you

And so were you
