VENUES

One is scrolling in a book
One can't keep staring at the brook
Many places many people
Different flavours in the air

Strangers are becoming brothers
Seems they have forgotten us
Many places, many people
Slowly shaping our view

And so I'm wandering around on this river called my life
Meeting friends, losing friends
(Unfamiliar faces)
This is how it goes and I'm glad for the ones
Who stay close to my heart for the rest of this ride
(Mirrors of ourselves)

Oh-oh oh-oh I will never never leave you, never leave you
Oh-oh oh-oh and I'll forever ever dream with you, ever dream with you

Roads keep changing around us
Fast forward images blind us
Many places, many people
Different colours everywhere

Strangers are becoming brothers
Seems they have forgotten us
Many places, many people
Slowly shaping our view

And so I'm wandering around on this river called my life
Meeting friends, losing friends
(Unfamiliar faces)
This is how it goes and I'm glad for the ones
Who stay close to my heart for the rest of this ride
(Mirrors of ourselves)

Oh-oh oh-oh I will never never leave you, never leave you
Oh-oh oh-oh and I'll forever ever dream with you, ever dream with you

When the going gets rough
Sails get lost
Better hold on tight
New ways will cross
Stand the storm
Save some blood
For the sake of you
Trust your gut

When the going gets rough
Sails get lost
Better hold on tight
New ways will cross
Stand the storm
Save some blood
For the sake of you

And so I'm wandering around on this river called my life
Meeting friends, losing friends

Oh-oh oh-oh I will never never leave you, never leave you
