

Everything Is Wonderful

Vera Blue

I click my fingers
And skies are blue
I lean over the edge
Just to enjoy the view

I smell the flowers
Like I'm told to do
In the palm of my hand
Slowly slipping right through

Highlights of a life
Many of you know
What goes on behind
Many of you don't

And I find it hard to listen
I don't give myself permission
Everything is wonderful
Everything is wonderful
There's no time to think of healing
If there is I don't know how
Everything is wonderful
I swear
Everything is wonderful

A wild chaos mind
And a vacant space
I hold everything dear
But it can all be replaced

I scan my eye line
A familiar face
Crazy shit that we do
For a stranger's embrace
Stranger's embrace
Stranger's embrace
Stranger's embrace

And I find it hard to listen
I don't give myself permission
Everything is wonderful
Everything is wonderful
There's no time to think of healing
If there is I don't know how
Everything is wonderful
I swear
Everything is wonderful
