

A Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Square

Vera Lynn

When two lovers meet in Mayfair So the legends tell Songbirds sing and winter turns to spring Every winding street in Mayfair falls beneath the spell I know such enchantment can be 'cause it happened one evening to me

That certain night, the night we met, there was magic abroad in the air,
There were angels dining at the Ritz and A Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Square
I may be right, I may be wrong, but I'm perfectly willing to swear That when you turn'd and smiled at me
A Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Square

The moon that lingered over London town; poor puzzled moon, he wore a frown How could he know we two were so in love, the whole darn world seemed upside down
The streets of town were paved with stars, it was such a romantic affair,
And as we kissed and said goodnight,
A Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Square

Our homeward step was just as light as the tap dancing feet of Astair And like an echo far away,
A Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Square
I know 'cause I was there, that night in Berkeley Square
