

Travellin' Home

Vera Lynn

I'm travelling home, travelling home
Far have I roamed from the places I love
Winds that have blown me on my way
Blow me right back to harbour
Distant horizons speak from afar, beckons to me like a shimmering star
When you're away Oh how quickly you find you long for the place far behind you
Travelling home, travelling home
I'm like a stone that's been rolling too long
Winds that have blown me on my way
Blow me right back to harbour
Travelling home again
Travelling home, I love you
Travelling home again
Home again to you
