

Use Your Imagination

Vera Lynn

Use your imagination;
Just take this motto for your theme,
And soon every night
Will be crowded with delight,
And every day will be a dream!

Use your imagination,
You'll see such wonders if you do.
Around you there lies
Pure enchantment in disguise
And endless joys you never knew!

Behind ev'ry cloud there's a so lovely star,
Behind ev'ry star there's a lovelier one by far!

So use your imagination;
Just take this motto for your theme,
And soon you will dance
On the road to sweet romance,
And ev'ry day will be a dream!
