

Dirty Secrets

Veridia

You'll find me underneath the ruin, ruin
I tore down all the walls myself
Was once a home but now it's too late, too late
To take back everything I've said

Skeletons, demons
Whatever you wanna call them
I hide them all in my closet
I need to let them out, cause...

We all have our dirty dirty secrets
Faults and flaws we might have failed to mention
Forgiveness forgets every one of my regrets
I'm letting go of my dirty dirty secrets

I can't change the past but I'll try, I'll try
To give today all that I've got Cause when tomorrow comes, I'll hold on, hold on To who I am, not what I was

Skeletons, demons
Whatever you wanna call them
I hide them all in my closet
I need to let them out, cause...

We all have our dirty dirty secrets
Faults and flaws we might have failed to mention
Forgiveness forgets every one of my regrets
I'm letting go of my dirty dirty...

Just ignore accusatory, judge and jury
This is your story, it's legendary
Just ignore accusatory, prosecutors, judge and jury
Righting wrongs, this is your story
Make it one that's legendary
