

Savage

Veridia

Sometimes you're so mad that you have nothing else left to say
But, even if you did say something I wouldn't be listening
Sometimes you're so mad that you have nothing else left to say
But, even if you did say something I wouldn't be listening

I could be a better person
I could be a different version
But, that's too much work for me to do
I tune you out and tear you down
Leave you in the lost and found
And then I turn around and blame you

Sometimes you're so mad that you have nothing else left to say
But, even if you did say something I wouldn't be listening

I'm so so savage, savage
So cynical, it's clinical
I can't be held responsible
Savage, so savage
By definition my condition
Keeps demanding your attention

Choking on all of my damn pride
It's not what I thought it would taste like
But you know I am not gonna swallow
Yeah, I know I can be so
Savage, savage

I could try apologies
But, even if I'm on my knees
Believing me is not what you'll do
'Cause it's a vicious cycle
I am seriously psycho
And if I go down I'm gonna take you, yeah

Sometimes you're so mad that you have nothing else left to say#
(Know I'm gonna take you)
But, even if you did say something I wouldn't be listening

I'm so so savage, savage
So cynical, it's clinical
I can't be held responsible
Savage, so savage
By definition my condition
Keeps demanding your attention

Choking on all of my damn pride
It's not what I thought it would taste like
But you know I am not gonna swallow
Yeah, I know I can be so
Savage, savage

Go ahead and provoke me, baby
Keep it coming
Know what you're getting into
Getting into, getting, yeah

I'm so so savage
So cynical, it's clinical
I can't be held responsible
Savage
By definition my condition
Makes me so so savage

I'm so so savage, savage
So cynical, it's clinical
I can't be held responsible
Savage, so savage
By definition my condition
Keeps demanding your attention

Choking on all of my damn pride
It's not what I thought it would taste like
But you know I am not gonna swallow
Yeah, I know I can be so
Savage, savage

Sometimes you're so mad that you have nothing else left to say
