

Say a Prayer

Veridia

Feeling kind of lost again
Seems I have a lot of friends, but Here, another lonely night
On this cold apartment floor

I can't sleep another blink now
My heart breaks when I think of how
Someone else is hurting worse than me

Tonight, when I think of you, remember me

Say a prayer, a song to lift the lonely heart
All around the world, a spark, lighting up the night
Say a prayer, a cry for every desperate life
We're not alone inside this fight
Hope is always near, say a prayer

At the end of harder days
Even when the morning breaks
I can see you in my mind
Dancing in the rain

All alone, we're broken melodies
Together, we can make a symphony
So let us sing and hear the beauty, as one

Tonight, when I think of you, remember me

Say a prayer, a song to lift the lonely heart
All around the world, a spark, lighting up the night
Say a prayer, a cry for every desperate life
We're not alone inside this fight
Hope is always near, say a prayer

Tonight, wake me up
Let me remember the forgotten ones
Tonight, when all is lost
I know you will never let me go
Tonight, tonight, say a prayer

Say a prayer, a song to lift the lonely heart
All around the world, a spark, lighting up the night
Say a prayer, a cry for every desperate life
We're not alone inside this fight
Hope is always near, say a prayer
