gone

Vérité

Love
Take me over
I don't wanna sleep tonight
Rest on your shoulder
I don't wanna leave your side

'Cause I'm afraid of losing
Every part of you
And there's no getting used to
The quiet you're leaving
Is louder than screaming

Love
I should've warned you
I'm a stick of dynamite
The threat of explosion
Constantly strapped to your side

'Cause I'm afraid of losing
Everything I'm ruining
There's no getting used to
The quiet you're leaving
Is louder than screaming

So leave the clothes and mess we made up all on the floor
'Cause when we put them on we're not in love anymore
'Cause I know when we go, we're really gone
Ooooh ooooh (Really gone)
'Cause I know when we go, we're really gone, we're really gone

Love
Take me over
I don't wanna sleep tonight
Rest on your shoulder
I don't wanna leave your side

'Cause I'm afraid of losing
Everything I'm ruining
There's no getting used to
The quiet you're leaving

So leave the clothes and mess we made upon on the floor
'Cause when we put them on we're not in love anymore
'Cause I know when we go, we're really gone
Ooooh ooooh
'Cause I know when we go, we're really gone, we're really gone
Ooooh
