

he's not you

Vérité

I don't mind the way his lips taste on mine
In the heat of the summertime
They're scratchin' an itch of a comfortable habit
I couldn't kick if I tried, couldn't kick if I tried

Yeah, I need good conversation
A hand around my waist to pull, to dive into
Someone to give my feelings to
Don't know where I want to be Tangled around with you
But he makes it hard to leave

He's not you, but you're not here
And I'd be alone, but I'm too scared
So I'm callin' to somebody
Who don't know me like you did, like you did
He's not you, but you're not here
And I'd still be yours if you still cared
So I'm callin' to somebody
Who don't know me like you did, like you did

I don't mind the way his mouth fits on mine
The way his teeth hit the light
The way his hands fit just right
Better than yours did
But I'm still hung up on your silence
Trying to close my eyes and imagine a different life

Yeah, I need your intoxication
A hand around my waist to pull, to dive into
Someone to give my feelings to
My salted sweet misery loves company

He's not you, but you're not here
And I'd be alone, but I'm too scared
So I'm callin' to somebody
Who don't know me like you did, like you did
He's not you, but you're not here
And I'd still be yours if you still cared
So I'm callin' to somebody
Who don't know me like you did, like you did

Li-li-like you did
Oh-oh, ooh-ooh
Li-li-like you did

I know I should be alone
But I love the way he holds me
It helps pass by each moment
I wait up on you, frozen
Wishing you would get back in your head
Maybe I should say it again

He's not you, but you're not here
And I'd be alone, but I'm too scared
So I'm callin' to somebody (Callin' to somebody)
Who don't know me like you did

Like you did (Li-li-like you did)
He's not you (He's not you)
But you're not here (You're not here)
And I'd still be yours if you still cared
So I'm callin' to somebody (Callin' to somebody)
Who don't know me like you did (Like you did)
Like you did (Like you did)
