

think of me

Vérité

All of my atoms are under attack
Don't wanna feel nothing so I don't react
No, I don't even notice you
You in the kitchen and me in the bath
Yeah, I could play normal and you can pretend
That I don't know where you go
I know where you go, I know where you go

I hope you fuck her with your eyes closed
And think of me
I hope you love her with the lights off
And think of me

I hope you fuck her with your eyes clothes
Put the shame off with some benzos
Swallow the feeling while you walk home

And think of me always
Think of me, think of me, always
And think of me (Think of me)
And think of me (Think of me)

And think of me always
Think of me, think of me, always
And think of me (Think of me)
And think of me

All of the colours drain from your face
"I'm sorry I love you", is noise that you make
No, I didn't even notice you
Staying out, staying out all night
Running your fingers down her thighs
Licking her lips in the low light
No, I didn't even notice you

I hope you fuck her with your eyes closed
And think of me
I hope you love her with the lights off
And think of me

I hope you fuck her with your eyes clothes
Put the shame off with some benzos
Swallow the feeling while you walk home

And think of me always
Think of me, think of me, always
And think of me (Think of me)
And think of me (Think of me)

And think of me always
Think of me, think of me, always
And think of me (Think of me)
And think of me

And think of me
