

Baby you're like water in my hands
You've been running steady since you left like that
Maybe you were making other plans I didn't notice
I been tryna make it all make sense
How you couldn't stand up 'cause you surface landed
I been tryna fill in all the empty space that's left

Maybe I should say it from my chest
But that don't react when it gets complicated
I been tryna table the ten I got
Don't feel it when you fuck around
'Cause you can't seem stand to feel it though

Are you tired of being mine?
Always trying to find someone, find someone, find someone new Find someone, fight someone, find someone new

Are you tired of being mine?
Always trying to find someone, find someone, find someone new
