

I Fell Off The Wagon

Vern Gosdin

I hadn't had a drop of nothing since I got that DUI
But I woke up this morning looking through a pair of blood shot eyes
They looked like a couple of road maps going every which way bu t right
'Cause I fell off the wagon in front of the honky tonk last nig ht

Yeah that old wagon throwed me right in front of the honky tonk
I hit the ground with a mighty thirst when I heard them drinkin g songs
Yeah I musta went a little bit crazy when I saw those neon ligh ts
'Cause I fell off the wagon in front of the honky tonk last nig ht

The last thing I remember old Jim Bean knocked me down
But I got up just long enough to try him another round
Now I feel like an eighteen wheeler musta hit me head on twice
'Cause I fell off the wagon in front of the honky tonk last nig
ht

I hit the ground with a mighty thirst when I heard them drinkin
