

I'm Still Crazy

Vern Gosdin

Well, I woke up one morning
With a note up on my chest
It said I'm gone for good
You're no longer with the best

Never dreamed there'd ever be
Another made for you
So, I just went crazy
There was nothing left to do

I used to be crazy over you
Nobody else could move me like you used to
I had to be out of my mind
Thinking I'd soon be over you
But I'm still crazy and I'm not over you

When the bad news finally hit me
Lord, it hurt me to the bone
I was just a fool to think
You could be just a little bit gone

But it would be easy
It wouldn't be hard to forget
Little did I know
That I hadn't seen nothing yet

I used to be crazy over you
Nobody else could move me like you used to
I had to be out of my mind
Thinking I'd soon be over you

I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
Oh, I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
Oh, I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
Oh, I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
