

You're Not By Yourself

Vern Gosdin

You're leavin' without a reason
At least a reason you just won't say

You won't tell me where you're going
Or even if you're goin to stay

And if you thought your leavin would kill me
Honey would you still go anyway?

And if you thought your stayin would save me
Ooohhhh, I'm ready to be saved

You say your not leavin for somebody else
I guess I believe that is true

And if you find your future is the past that you left and if you're all alone, you're not by yourself

You say your not leavin for somebody else
I guess I believe that is true

And if you find your future is the past that you left

And if you're all alone
You're not by yourself

If you're all alone
You're not by yourself
