

Heavy Breathing

Versus Me

Can you feel me? You control me
There's a fire in your eyes tonight
Can you feel me?
Heavy breathing
Hold on cause this is not the end

Eyes locked from across the room
The way you do the things you do
The way you move and follow through
I wouldn't want this with anyone but you

Just lead the way, you know what to do
I wouldn't want this with anyone but you

Can you feel me? You control me
There's a fire in your eyes tonight
Can you feel me?
Heavy breathing
Hold on cause this is not the end

What are we waiting for?
Leave your inhibitions at the door
Don't waste stolen glances
Behind the candle flame that dances
Time slows, hanging on your every word
We know, from here on out the lines are blurred

Can you feel me? You control me
There's a fire in your eyes tonight
Can you feel me?
Heavy breathing
Hold on cause this is not the end

(There's a fire in your eyes tonight)
(Hold on cause this is not the end)

This is not the end

I'll burn myself on your flame
Our mind's thinking, one in the same
