

Left Here

Versus Me

Don't wanna be left alone,
With a pen and a pad cause I'll tell you something
I need to get far from home cause there's Too many things that remind me I'm nothing

I finally start to feel, the work I've done means something
I finally feel, I finally feel
I need to get far from here, I need to do this on my own.
Wherever you are you'll hear, wherever you are

Don't wanna be left alone with a pen
And a pad cause I'll tell you something
I need to be far from home,
Cause there's too many things that remind me I'm nothing
(Whoa oh oh) I don't wanna be left here anymore
(Whoa oh oh) I don't wanna be left here anymore

Where do we go from here?
Everything has changed so fast.
I can feel our chance is near, maybe this was always the path?

I won't give up.
Have you ever felt like this?
I don't give up.
I don't wanna be left here anymore

Wherever you are...

Don't wanna be left alone with a pen
And a pad cause I'll tell you something
I need to be far from home,
Cause there's too many things that remind me I'm nothing
(Whoa oh oh) I don't wanna be left here anymore
(Whoa oh oh) I don't wanna be left here anymore

Wherever you are (I don't wanna be left here anymore)
Wherever you are (I don't wanna be, I don't wanna be...

Don't wanna be left alone with a pen and a pad cause
I'll tell you something. (I'll tell you something)
I need to be far from home,
Cause there's too many things that
Remind me I'm nothing. (far from home)
(Whoa oh oh) I don't wanna be left
Here anymore. (Don't wanna be left here)
(Whoa oh oh) I don't wanna be left here anymore
