

Not Going Back

Versus Me

Get up!

As I lay here I knew that, I would pay cause last night's fun wouldn't last
Even though I regret that, now I'm not going back no I'm not going back

I've replayed the scenes in my mind
The end's the same, time after time
No use in asking what-ifs, I know that I'm not meant for this
I'm not mean for this

I could stay here forever
I could lay all day cause I need to reflect
Never make that mistake again, cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back
Hiding under the covers, I'll come out, when I'm ready to Think I'll stay here forever, cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back

Get up! (Cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back)
(Cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back)

When I think of the time that I spent, all the places I went, and the people
I met
Remember better times then this and the things I never missed

Every time as it crossed my mind
I would say to myself all the things that I felt so
Get me out of here, nowhere near, not for me right now so why am I still here?
Wake up!

I could stay here forever
I could lay all day cause I need to reflect
Never make that mistake again, cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back
Hiding under the covers, I'll come out, when I'm ready to Think I'll stay here forever, cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back

Finally some sleep
Finally some peace
Rest remedy
Now I'm finally back

Never again never again no I'm not going
Never again never again
Never again never again no I'm not going
Never again never again

I'm never going back

I could stay here forever
I could lay all day cause I need to reflect
Never make that mistake again, cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back
Hiding under the covers, I'll come out, when I'm ready to Think I'll stay here forever, cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back

Get up! (Cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back)

(Cause I'm not going back no I'm not going back)
