Snake Cake

Versus Me

Don't waste your life away because you can't take it back... it just ends

Lately I've been dying for so many things
To figure out who I am or who to believe
Though I don't know where on earth, to begin

Then my life flashed before my eyes
I tried to look away, but I couldn't hide
Why did I waste so much time, trying to hide from life

Don't waste your life away because you can't take it back, it just ends
Don't give up on your dreams, they're the only ones you have, till the end

Regretting all the time I spent hiding away
Like all my problems could wait... I'll get to them someday
So I'm killing as much time as I can

No wonder nothing ever changed, what an insane waste, too late to complain
If I could just hit rewind, I swear I'd change, my life

Don't waste your life away because you can't take it back, it just ends
Don't give up on your dreams, they're the only ones you have, till the end

No, don't give up because there's no turning back
Don't you dare run from the only life you have

Don't waste your time, don't waste your days (GO GO GO)
You'll regret all the things
You don't pursue, It's up to you (GO GO GO)

Never regret the life you did not live just like I did just like I did

Maybe I'm better off dead, anyway

Don't waste your life away because you can't take it back, it just ends
Don't give up on your dreams, they're the only ones you have, till the end

You can't take it back
They're the only ones you have (Till the end)
