Firefly

Veruca Salt

What's that thing you do
That keeps me close to you
That makes me wanna cry

What's that thing you say
That makes me look away
That makes you wanna die

You were never, a good pretender
But you could always lie
I'm intending, a happy ending
For my Firefly

You're just not yourself
You look like someone else
Something in your eyes

It's that perfect love
That I need more of
I need you to be fine

It's not over, until it's over
For my Firefly
You were never, a good pretender
But you could always lie

Why, why, why, why
Why, why, they say it's not your time

You were never, a good pretender
But somehow you get by
It's not over, until it's over
For my Firefly
I'm intending, a happy ending
Promise that you'll try

Try, try, try, try
Try, try, they say it's not your time
Try, try, they say it's not your time
Try, try, they say it's not your time
Try, try, they say it's not your time
