

Fall back, she said in my head
And I did collapse
In the snow, so cold

I got better days on my mind
Got better days on my mind
I had a clock but I didn't use the time
Run out of luck, now I gotta pay the fine
Red jeans, blue nights
My dreams, all the time
Brown eyes, hypnotized
Lose my mind, she thinks I'm like the Young kids all down and desperate
And some of us been there too
But if I'm really tryna to be like that
I would've stayed in my youth

Fall back, she said in my head
And I did relax, and I know
She'll go

I've got to grow, leave me alone
I let it ease in, and I've not been sleepin'
I've been going to the park every day
And sitting with the birds, and I learned to meditate
Still, don't know myself but I got a better image
And I know I'm not fit for this life I'm living

I got better days on my mind
Oh, got better days on my mind
I got better days on my mind
Oh, got better days on my mind
Better days

Fall back, she said in my head
And I did relax, and I know
She'll go
Fall back, she said in my head
And I did relax, and I know
She'll go

(Someone help me, I can't breathe)
(I can't see, don't feel free)
(Someone help me, I can't breathe)
