I'm tired of the same old story
It's goin' right over your head
And next time that I'm feelin' lonely
I'll find somebody else instead

You need to know it's gettin' old
I'm losin' hold, I'm losin' hope
You need to know it's gettin' old
I'm losin' hold and so

I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more (No more)
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more (No more)
I don't wanna talk no more

I been sleepin' all day hidin' from this fake craze
Smoke it till it fades away
Don't wanna wake up, don't waste my time with the fake love
We all still the way that they made us

Foldin' all of my cards, this is gettin' too far
What else is there to say? Well, maybe that's okay
Maybe that's okay, well, maybe that's okay
Maybe that's okay, what else is there to say?

You need to know it's gettin' old
What else is there to say?
I'm losin' hold, I'm losin' hope
Else to say
You need to know it's gettin' old
What else is there to say?
I'm losin' hold and so

I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more (No more)
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more
I don't wanna talk no more (No more)
I don't wanna talk no more
