

shadow-self

Verzache

Can barely see it but it's so clear
The bits and pieces are from the mirror
Cuts and bruises with all my tears
I don't remember the past two years

I'll say I know I'm fine
Then take what I want
And I'll keep what I like
Lost in the act
Think I'll fight for what's right
Can you tell my shadow that we're not a like
No. We're not a like at all

Keep up keep easing up
It never gets easier
High live gonna ruin your love
You'll never be
You'll never have trust
Why don't you trust your self
You listen to no one else anyways
I thought you
I thought you'd notice by now

Can barely see it but it's so clear
The bits and pieces are from the mirror
Cuts and bruises with all my tears
I don't remember the past two years

I'm taking 'em down
These shots like a Glock
I'm destined to meet you
Like two hands on a clock
Your hates on my love
On top like a glove
And I'm suffocating
Oh I hate it so much
I'll never get out
