

Sinking

Verzache

I'm sinking, sinking
Falling deeper every second
I'll say it, say it
It's my fault and I'll learn my lesson

Can't hate what you never knew
My hate for lust just grew
Why's my heart still blue
Fixing a ship like this for you
It's something I can't do
What'd I get my self into

Man where the hell's my head at
Send a couple texts that I can't afford to look past
And once you've said it there's no take backs
Feel like the kid who's always picked last

Now that you know

I'm sinking, sinking
Falling deeper every second
I'll say it, say it
It's my fault and I'll learn my lesson

I'm sure you got me right
I'm sure you got me right
Right where you want me in my shell
No treading on thin ice
Just drowning in a fight
That's only in my mind

It's all the same thing I guess
In your head
You feel the same things I bet
In your head

Oh you're clubbing on a Tuesday night?
There ain't nothing better to do
That'll get you through the Thought of my fingers texting letters to you

I can't never do that again

I'm sinking, sinking
Falling deeper every second
I'll say it, say it
It's my fault and I'll learn my lesson
