

Lake

Vex Red

This lake is frozen
Our world under the ice
This lake is frozen
Now nothing looks the same
As it used to when I came here as a boy
It's a shame, and I remember

When autumn leaves fell from the sky
And all those beasts from which we'd hide
Came to hunt us down, down, down
We saw those animals bear their teeth
It made us sink down to our knees
And we knew

Of you, my thoughts
Of you, of course
Of you, my thoughts
Of you, of course
In the dark I only dream
Of you, you and me

This lake is frozen
Our secrets underneath
We're so much braver
Than we both used to be
I remember, we were walking
In our sleep, when they came
Here to find us

When autumn leaves fell from the sky
And all those beasts from which we'd hide
Came to hunt us down, down, down
We saw those animals bear their teeth
It made us sink down to our knees
And we knew

Of you, my thoughts
Of you, of course
Of you, my thoughts
Of you, of course
In the dark I only dream
Of you, you and me

With a kiss we set out for
A lonely place we'd been before
With fear, the kind that eats the soul
And makes you do what you are told
Still they would come for us that night

While we made dreams in black and white
They moved as shadows all around
So quick they never made a sound

And all I saw was you
And all I saw was you
All I saw was you
All I saw was you
