

Dominate

VEXED

Soft skin, deep eyes, luring you in taking over your mind
Hot breath, so sweet, you wanna taste but it's out of your reach

You've lost control, no one has ever stole your focus before
Ego and pride, left feeling bruised, now it's time to decide

Discrimination isn't bred or born, it is a choice, it is a voice, it is the actions that you ignore
Fight for an empire built upon inadequacy or break down the walls, overthrow, be free

You think you have power over me
But that's only what you want to believe
This narrow minded kingdom you create
I will not hesitate, this motherfucker shall burn as I dominate

Don't mistake prejudice for advantage
Predatory behaviour is not an act of kindness

Just because I have a few more layers of flesh
Between what's beating within my chest
Doesn't mean I'm worth any more or less than you

Am I too much of a threat?
Or is it just because you can't get me undressed?
Or perhaps it's cos' you can't throw your weight
To get what you want or intimidate me?

You think you have power over me
But that's only what you want to believe
This narrow minded kingdom you create
I promise you, I will dominate

You think you have power over me
But that's only what you want to believe
This narrow minded kingdom you create
I will not hesitate, this motherfucker shall burn as I dominate
