

Narcissist

VEXED

All I wanna do is expose you, show the world who
Is hiding underneath that sociopathic mask
But unfortunately that's an issue as the whole truth
Might set me free but it'll cause others misery
So I guess I'll swallow and suppress it, then digest it
Drink the poison for the ones I love and never even question it
I'll bide my time and wait till it's forgotten and is rotten
Then I'll drag your corpse up from the dirt, remind you how it feels to hurt

This is not a warning, it's a fucking threat
Remember lies have a price and Karmas calling in your debt
This is not a warning, it is your demise
Remember this narcissist you're nothing but a parasite

I hope you know I wish you all the best, with great success
Cos falling from the top is a slower more painful death
Don't forget that I know all your lies and can decide
To kick the chair on all your shit and make it look like suicide
Gilded promises are not the truth, you can't dispute
Being in control by any means is what you're born to do
Honesty and work is for the weak, you'd rather be Sitting in your house upon a hill counting your stolen money

All I wanna do is expose you, show the world who
Is hiding underneath that sociopathic mask
But unfortunately that's an issue as the whole truth
Might set me free but it'll cause others misery

This is not a warning, it's a fucking threat
Remember lies have a price and Karmas calling in your debt
This is not a warning, it is your demise
Remember this narcissist you're nothing but a parasite

You're a walking contradiction who always plays the victim
Won't take responsibility for any of your actions
You're a walking contradiction who always fakes a fall
Tell me how does it feel feeling nothing at all?

Jealousy has the loudest voice
That's why you rarely hear mine unless it's calling out yours
No time for your shit
I'll put an end to all of this

This is not a warning, it's a fucking threat
Remember lies have a price and Karmas calling in your debt
This is not a warning, it is your demise
Remember this narcissist you're nothing but a parasite
