

I found my courage in a box of wine
Tried to get away from it all
Should pull the trigger 'fore I change my mind
Then I turned, I turned around

And we say we're all grown up
We're over love
And we say
We've had enough

All the secrets I could never say
Of all the people I could love you walked away
Anyway, anyway, anyway
I know I shouldn't do it but I think I might
I'm going with the feeling when it don't feel right
But you know, you know, you know
I'm gonna do it tonight

I broke a bottle with a piece of my mind
Feeling all the courage I found
Paid no attention to the warning sign
Then I burned, I burned it down

And we say we're all grown up
We're over love
And we say
We've had enough

All the secrets I could never say
Of all the people I could love you walked away
Anyway, anyway, anyway
I know I shouldn't do it but I think I might
I'm going with the feeling when it don't feel right
But you know, you know, you know
I'm gonna do it tonight

Anyway, anyway, anyway
I'm gonna live my life
Anyway, anyway, anyway
I'm gonna live my life
Anyway, anyway, anyway
I'm gonna live my life
Anyway, anyway, anyway
I'm gonna live my life anyway
