

I wanna run
I want to ride with you
I wanna see
That other side of you
Where the birds don't sing
Heaven clipped their wings

I wanna know
Oh would you leave today
Like a ghost
On a midnight train
All alone
God only knows

Tonight we're fighting gravity
Hold tight
Breathe in for all we know
It's a long way to fall

Tonight it all feels like a dream
Hold on
We're far from all we know
It's a long way to fall
From Arcadia

I want it all
I want everything
Down below
Where we sink or swim
Where we go
God only knows

Tonight we're fighting gravity
Hold tight
Breathe in for all we know
It's a long way to fall

Tonight it all feels like a dream
Hold on
We're far from all we know
It's a long way to fall
From Arcadia

Woah
From Arcadia
Woah
From Arcadia
