

The Dark

VHS Collection

Pale moonlight
Diamond skies
Such a fine line, such a fine way to live your life
All my crimes
Lose my mind
Such a bad sign when you find what you really like

We're alone

And the dark comes to take control
In the light of your eyes
And I don't want to let you go
'Cause I won't win the fight
We can watch from your bedroom window
We can watch all night
When the dark comes to take control
We can be the light

Won't you shine
And don't pick sides
Hard to find time, hard to find time to live the lie
I can't show
What I don't know
I can rewind, it's a crime that I never mind

We're alone

And the dark comes to take control
In the light of your eyes
And I don't want to let you go
'Cause I won't win the fight
We can watch from your bedroom window
We can watch all night
When the dark comes to take control
We can be the light

Ah
We are darkness
We are dark
To the light
We are darkness
We are dark
To the light
We are darkness
We are dark
To the light
To the light
To the light

And the dark comes to take control
In the light of your eyes
And I don't want to let you go
We can watch all night
When the dark comes to take control

And the dark comes to take control
(We are darkness)
(We are dark to the light)
And I don't want to let you go
'Cause I won't win the fight
(We are darkness)
(We are darkness)
