

Fall Down Lightly

VHS or Beta

I've got too many in the size of my head, and I'm thinking
It's soon to keep me from coming here
I've got too many in the springs of my heart, every feeling about to turn you when I want

It's always the bright side we're taking
No wars are raging
It's easier to leave it
You are alone

So wake up, wake up, wake up
Won't you fall down lightly, lightly
Stay up, stay up, stay up
Won't you tell me something, something

We always had a thing or two between the way we are

So wake up, wake up, wake up
Won't you fall down lightly, lightly

I'd give you everything, anything that I own, every second
Just to know where this comes from
And all the grace and the gods in the world, for each other will have to keep us from letting go

It's always the bright side we're taking
No wars are raging
Carry on now, it's time we were racing
Long have we waited Words I believed in

Carry on now, carry on now, carry on now
Carry on now
Carry on now

So wake up, wake up, wake up
Won't you fall down lightly, lightly
Stay up, stay up, stay up
Won't you tell me something, something

We always had a thing or two between the way we are

So wake up, wake up, wake up
Won't you fall down lightly, lightly

So wake up, wake up, wake up
Won't you fall down lightly, lightly
Stay up, stay up, stay up
Won't you tell me something, something

We always had a thing or two between the way we are

So wake up, wake up, wake up

Won't you fall down lightly, lightly
So wake up, wake up, wake up
Won't you fall down lightly, lightly
