

people's heartaches (make others' hearts break)

Vian Izak

I'm feeling so lost
Can't read the map where to go
'Cause we hurt each other so
These broken words and broken bones

I need a sunrise
A pleasant surprise
To rest
My weary head is full of pain
And so much heavy stress

And people's heartaches
Make others hearts break
And so the story goes
I need to know there's hope behind
This rain and all this snow
